Historic Quilts with Ellen Endslow
Saturday, February 11th 1:00pm, Pottsgrove Manor, 100 W. King Street, Pottstown. Join us for a talk with Ellen Endslow, Director of Collections at Chester County History Center. Learn about their 175+ piece collection, spanning the late 1700s to early 1900s—a small part of the southeastern Pennsylvania quilting heritage. Endslow will also share discoveries from the Chester County Quilt Documentation Project, which captured images and information on more than 1,000 quilts in the region. If you're an experienced quilter or just curious about this unique art form, visit Pottsgrove Manor to hear the stories in every stitch!

Pottsgrove Sleepover-A Stuffed Animal Adventure
Friday, Jan. 27th drop-off by 3pm, Saturday, Jan. 28th pick-up at 11:00am. Pottsgrove Manor, 100 W. King Street, Pottstown. Experience a sleepover at Pottsgrove Manor through the eyes of your favorite stuffed animal. Bring by your children's favorite toys for an overnight adventure story! The plushies, dolls, and teddy bears will explore the 18th-century home and bed down for the night. Your kids can watch online, seeing their toys snuggling safe and sound under the covers in our historic rooms. When it's time to pick up their friends, make-and-take crafts will be a keepsake to remember the fun night of history! Ages 2-12; Registration Required.
